

Senior Procurement Director – Riyadh | Job description

About us

At WT, we empower our clients to grow, inspiring confidence through independent advice and inventive thinking to create sustainable value across all aspects of the built environment.

We are a leading international project advisory firm with more than 75 years of multi-sector experience.

Our clients can tap into the collective thinking of over 2,000 of the best people in the industry, operating from 70+ offices throughout Australia, New Zealand, Asia, India, Middle East, North America, Africa, the UK and Europe.

In the Middle East, we support our clients across property, construction and infrastructure with a team of local and international experts in cost management and quantity surveying, portfolio and program advisory, commercial advisory, carbon and sustainability, and digital solutions.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Lead and develop the organisation's procurement function and strategy across Real Estate and Construction activities
- Manage and mentor a team of 8–10 procurement professionals
- Drive best-practice procurement governance and commercial performance
- Lead major procurement initiatives, negotiations and supplier relationships with contractors, consultants and suppliers
- Work closely with executive leadership to deliver value, efficiency and risk management across the supply chain

Preferred Candidate Requirements

- Minimum 20 years' procurement experience – significant Real Estate or Construction experience is strongly preferred, though candidates from other complex, high-value sectors will be considered
- At least 5 years operating at executive or senior leadership level
- Proven experience leading procurement teams and complex procurement programmes
- Strong commercial and negotiation capability
- Experience working in large or complex organisations
- Middle East experience would be advantageous

Who this role would suit

This opportunity is ideal for a seasoned Senior Procurement Director or CPO-level leader with deep experience in Real Estate or Construction, and a proven ability to lead and elevate a high-performing procurement function.

Reporting directly to the CEO and overseeing a team of 8–10 procurement professionals, the successful candidate will play a pivotal role in strengthening procurement governance and delivering commercial value across significant organisational spend.

This role would suit an experienced Procurement Director or CPO-level leader with a strong Real Estate or Construction background, looking to play a strategic role within a growing organisation.
